

True North Automation Awarded Global Telemetry Partner of the Year Award - 2017

Global SI Excellence Awards recognize best of Schneider Electric Alliance Partners

Calgary, Alberta – True North Automation, is proud to announce they have been named Schneider Electric’s Telemetry Partner of the Year as part of their Global SI Alliance Excellence Awards. The Global SI Alliance Excellence Awards recognize Schneider’s partner companies who deliver the best solution, display the largest growth and business development, execute technical excellence and deliver quality business relationships with our mutual customers.

“True North is honored to be recognized as Schneider’s Telemetry Partner of the Year” says True North President, Blair Hanel. “This Excellence Award is directly contributed to the development and execution of the FAST SCADA solution and its success. It is proof of True North’s innovation and thought leadership in the development of solutions and tools, delivering exceptional value and challenging the traditional way of doing things.”

As a Schneider Electric Certified Alliance Partner, True North Automation has demonstrated our expertise and project successes in Schneider Electric system technologies, enabling us to bring valued solutions to our end users and realize the extended benefits of partnering with Schneider Electric and their distributors. True North is the only integrator in Western Canada to achieve Certified Alliance Partner status.

True North Automation will be recognized at the Schneider Electric Global SI Alliance Partner Excellence Awards held on the 28-30 of June in Nice, France.
